

Portage Park - Chicago

HARD CORNER RETAIL SPACE AVAILABLE ON MONTROSE & CICERO

4358 N. Cicero Ave. Chicago, IL

Portage Park is a large Chicago community on the city's North West side. In addition to many shops, restaurants and delis, it is also known for its 36-acre namesake park, which hosted the Pan-American Games in 1956 and the 1972 U.S. Olympic swimming trials. You'll also find celebrated bakeries, flower shops and clothing boutiques in the area's three shopping districts, including a bustling European-inspired retail corridor on Six Corners. The area boasts a few must-see attractions, like the elegantly restored Portage Theater and The Patio.
