Neighborhood Description	Portage Park is bordered by the community areas of Jefferson Park and Forest Glen to the north, Dunning and the suburb of Harwood Heights to the west, Irving Park to the east, and Belmont-Cragin to the south. A 36-acre namesake park at Irving Park Road and Central Avenue anchors this Northwest Side residential neighborhood. Besides the park you will find celebrated bakeries, flower shops and clothing boutiques in three shopping districts, including a bustling European inspired retail corridor at Six Corners. The Six Corners intersection of Irving Park/Milwaukee/Cicero is the site of a historic shopping district dating back to the 1840s. It later became one of Chicago's busiest off-Loop retail areas in the 1940s and '50s. The recently reopened Portage Theater shows classic films in a 1920s era Art Deco building. Portage Park is accessible via mass transit via the Blue Line.
