The Loop

The Chicago Loop refers to the official downtown area. As the second largest central business district in the United States, it is home to the Chicago Mercantile Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade. The Loop houses numerous historic buildings, world-famous skyscrapers, and the State Street shopping district. It also boasts some of the nation's favorite attractions, including Millennium Park, Willis Tower and the Art Institute. All major train lines lead to the Loop.

Location Description	The West Loop Gate makes up the north central area of the Near West Side, west of Chicago's Loop. It is bordered by the Kennedy Expy. to the east, Grand Ave. on the north, the Eisenhower Expy. to the south, and Ashland Ave. to the west. The neighborhood also extends to the Chicago River south of Madison St. In a relatively short time, the community has been transformed from a warehouse district into one Chicago's hottest areas for living, dining and shopping. Former factories and wholesale markets are now mostly loft condominiums, boutiques and art galleries. The neighborhood is also home to some of the city's newest and most acclaimed foodie destinations, along with well-loved classic diners and brunch spots
