Evergreen Park, IL
Evergreen Park is a village in Cook County, Illinois. The suburb of Evergreen Park is surrounded by the city of Chicago on three of its sides, while Oak Lawn and Hometown border its west. Chicago's Ashburn community is to its north, Beverly is to its east and south, and Mount Greenwood is to its south. Evergreen Park has a total area of 3.16 square miles, all land. The village was once home to an indoor shopping mall originating in the early 1950s. Evergreen Plaza was noted historically as the first modern America mall and set the standard for American mall development until the 1980s. It closed in 2013 after 61 years of operation, and is currently under redevelopment. Retail department store Carson's was the first to open, with a celebratory grand opening in September of 2016.
